BIG JUMP GRANT

The Big Jump Project is an initiative by PeopleForBikes that seeks to help 10 cities, including the City of Los Angeles, to double or triple bicycle ridership in specific neighborhoods over a 3-year period. Join us to learn more about what DOT is planning and how to help make the most of these new resources. Special guests: Seleta Reynolds, Dan Mitchell, and Nat Gale, Los Angeles Department of Transportation

METRO BIKE SHARE PRICING & EXPANSION

The Metro Bike Share system opened Downtown in July 2016, and thus far it has fallen short of expectations on ridership and fiscal sustainability. Pricing structure and the poor quality of infrastructure

Upcoming CCA Events - May & June 2017

in LA have both been cited as contributing factors, and Metro will be in to discuss how they're planning to address these issues. Special guest: Avital Shavit, Metro

Housing Panel & Showcase: Density Is Our Destiny

Omni Hotel

251 S. Olive Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

THURSDAY

JUN. 15

11 a.m. -

1:30 p.m.

Join CCA to hear about the next generation of living in Downtown at our next Housing Panel & Showcase: Density Is Our Destiny. Academics, planners, and environmentalists all agree cities are the best opportunity for sustainable growth. Access to mass transit, vertical living and walkable neighborhoods are characteristics of a city that will accommodate increased population. In Los Angeles, Downtown is this model city. It is the region's center for public transportation and is home to more high-rises than any other place in the city. In Downtown, density is our destiny.

Moderated by Kerry Cavanaugh, Los Angeles Times; with speakers Councilmember José Huizar, 14th District; Paul Keller, Mack Urban; and Cindy Starrett, Latham & Watkins.

For more information, please contact Nhien Lasky. To showcase at the event, please contact Joanne Danganan.
